PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Full Stack Developer experienced in building web and mobile applications with Angular, Ionic, TypeScript, Node.js, Elixir/Phoenix and PostgreSQL. I work at Audo — Tecnologia e Saúde on the development and evolution of a healthcare platform: implementing new features, maintaining the application, integrating REST APIs and improving the user experience.

Analytical, collaborative and problem-solving oriented: I like to understand the business, propose improvements and build scalable solutions that create value for users and for the team. Fluent in English, with hands-on experience working with professionals from China, India, Trinidad and Tobago and the United States.
